

ru43@kent.ac.uk

Frontend test

Name of test being carried out:

User can manually enter username and password into the graphical user interface, then login.

Precondition:

Program has been run.

Steps to carry out the test:

Type username into YuconzID text box, type password into the password text box, click login button.

Result of test:

User could successfully log into the system.

Comments on test:

None

Errors encountered (If any):

None

Steps to be taken:

None