ru43@kent.ac.uk, as2352@kent.ac.uk, rk410@kent.ac.uk, dd387@kent.ac.uk

Yuconz - User stories

Story: As a director at yuconz, I want to see a simple hierarchy for all employees focused on my department.
Details: A tree structure for each department where all employees are subtrees of their manager, where the topmost is the department director. The default focus should be on The current directors department Test: Check if all staff members are listed in the correct order. Try modify records.

Story: As a director at yuconz, I want staff to only have the permissions we have specified for their job.
Details: A login method that checks users have the correct username and password, and gives them permissions equivalent to their job role.
Test: Try actions not specified for a job role, Try incorrect username and/or password.

Story: As a staff member of Yuconz, when accessing my record with my personal details I'd like them to be clearly presented so that I can view them.
Details: Restrict to read only access of own personal record.
Tests: Try modify own record. Try modify or read another staff members record.

Story: As a member of the human resources department, when accessing a staff members record as staff of human resources, I'd like to be able to see the details of that staff member.
Details: Allowed full access to view any staff member of Yuconz.
Tests: Try read every record. Try read non-existent record.

Story: As a member of the human resources department, when using the Yuconz system I want to be able to modify any staff members record.
Details: Able to modify any employees personal details record
Tests: Try modify staff personal record

Story: As a member of the human resources department, I want to be able to create new personal record details for new employees at our company. I should be able to enter all necessary personal details such as address, name etc. into the record.
Details: Able to create new staff personal records
Tests: Try add new record